

The Congregational Church of Hollis
Fellowship and Hospitality Committee

Meets as need
Unlimited term

From Feb 2018 Bylaws

Fellowship & Hospitality Committee

- (a) The Fellowship & Hospitality Committee shall consist of at least three members who shall be elected annually. A member of the Board of Deacons shall also serve on the Committee. The Fellowship & Hospitality Committee may designate its own structure and leadership positions and be empowered to appoint as many additional persons (church members and/or non-members) to the Committee as needed.
- (b) The Fellowship & Hospitality Committee shall be responsible for promoting Christian Fellowship within the congregation through social gatherings and will provide hospitality services for special events.
- (c) They shall recommend a fellowship and hospitality budget to the Trustees each year and provide a written report for the Annual Meeting.
- (d) All business of the Committee shall be conducted at meetings with a quorum of at least three members or via email for non-critical items.